

United States Army

Captain KATHLEEN L. JEZERCAK

404th MI Co. Commander
Menwith Hill Military Intelligence Battalion (Provisional)

APO AE 09468

Originally, from Boyton Beach, Florida, CPT Jezercak graduated as a Distinguished Military Graduate from Rutgers University in New Jersey with a Bachelors of Art degree in Political Science and Journalism. After graduation, she was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant into the Military Intelligence Corps and attended the Officer's Basic Course at Fort Huachuca.

After completing OBC, she was assigned as the Company Executive Officer for the Headquarters & Headquarters Operations Company, 102d Military Intelligence Battalion, 2d Infantry Division, Korea.

In 1998, she PCS'd to Germany and served as the Assistant S-2 for the DISCOM Brigade, 1st Infantry Division, Kitzingen, Germany. After 15 months with the DISCOM, CPT Jezercak moved to Division Headquarters in Wurzburg and served as the Special Security Officer, G2 for the Division.

In 2001, CPT Jezercak attended the Military Intelligence Captain's Career Course and Signals Intelligence/Electronic Warfare Officer Course at Fort Huachuca and the Combined Arms and Services Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. She then returned to the 102d Military Intelligence Battalion, Korea to serve as the Battalion Adjutant for twelve months.

In 2003, CPT Jezercak arrived at Menwith Hill Station and served as the Systems Exploitation Watch Officer for Delta crew. After twelve months in the position, she was selected to be a Deputy Senior Mission Manager and remained in the position until being selected to assume command of the 404th Military Intelligence Company.

In January of this year, CPT Jezercak completed her Master's Degree in Strategic Intelligence with a concentration on Terrorism.

CPT Jezercak's awards include the Army Commendation Medal (2 OLC), the Army Achievement Medal (1 OLC), the Korean Defense Service Medal, the Army Service Ribbon and the Overseas Service Ribbon (3).